Disciple of Mercy Award

And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.'

Matthew 25:40

Thank you, Deacon Tom, for the wonderful example you set for our parish family.

All are invited to Evening Prayer at 4:00 pm on Sunday, November 20th at St. Francis Cathedral in Metuchen, where Bishop Checchio will honor our Deacon Tom Sicola with the Disciple of Mercy Award. The award celebrates his life as an ongoing model of one that witnesses to the Lord's steadfast love and mercy.

A fresh perspective on the Sunday readings

by Rev. William J. Reilly
November 20, 2016

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

“Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation! And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes but this man has done nothing criminal.” Then he said, ‘Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom.’ He replied to him, ‘Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.’”

Almost daily, the media offers us stories of crimes, criminals, trials and sentencing. Shame, humiliation, and despair wound families of both victims and the accused.

How different it was on Calvary that afternoon, when the ‘good thief’ acknowledged guilt, expressed remorse, and won his place in heaven. Bishop Sheen stated ‘He committed another crime as he stole heaven.’

Pope Francis tells the story of a person to be executed who did not repent of his deeds, and if he had the chance, he would continue to do the same wrong. The confessor asked ‘Are you sorry then that you are not sorry?’ May we allow the words of the repentant thief fall from our lips: ‘Jesus remember me...’

The year of mercy has repeated these stories over and over again.

Preparing for next Sunday

1st Sunday of Advent

First Reading: Isaiah 2:1-5

The words of Isaiah urge all people to forsake war and to live in peace forever. The tone reaches a climax in the words, “One nation shall not raise the sword against another, nor shall they train for war again.”

Second Reading: Romans 13:11-14

Paul invites us to put away all the things of darkness and sin and to prepare for the coming of Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44

A comparison is made between the destruction caused by the flood in Noah’s time and the need to be prepared for the second coming of Christ. “You must be prepared in the same way. The Son of Man is coming at the time you least expect.”

“...giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light.”

Colossians 1:12 God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can’t do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or spend most of our time trying to acquire “things”. Try putting God first in all things instead.

Meet the King!

It is not often that Americans think of kings and kingdoms. However, the kingdom of God is a reality - a reality that we pray becomes present in our midst each time we pray the Our Father. Making that kingdom more present on this earth is a challenge which each of us faces. If you, or anyone you know (unbaptized, baptized in another Christian faith, or baptized Catholic but have never received both Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation), would like to know more about how the Catholic faith helps us to make the kingdom of God more evident in our day-to-day living, we invite you to meet us at an Inquiry Session. Inquiry Sessions DO NOT require a commitment to belong to the Catholic Faith. Inquiry sessions are for those who wish to inquire, explore, and search for ways to grow in relationship with God.

For more information, call the Parish Office at 908 647-1075 and they will put you in touch with an RCIA team member.
