The Octave Day of Christmas

Solemnity of Mary,

the Holy Mother of God

Ever since December 25, we have been celebrating Christ's birth. On the last day of His octave, we honor His Mother. There is much to contemplate on this day — it's the day of Christ's naming, it's a day to pray for peace and it's the start of a new year of grace.*

As the New Year begins, look at Mary as a model for renewed Christian life: in her openness to the Holy Spirit, her radical assent to God's will for her life, her patience through suffering, and her willingness to bring the Savior into the world. Those are all qualities that would make any of us better people in the coming year.*

Today is also the World Day of Peace. Take time today to pray for peace in our troubled world. Reflect on Pope Francis' words for the World Day of Peace and find other resources for the day here.

Louis Struniewski

God our Father, we give you thanks for the gift of marriage: the band of life and love and the font of family.

Hope is what Mary, Mother of God, sheltered in her heart during the darkest time of her life: Friday afternoon until Sunday morning. That is hope: she had it. And that hope has renewed everything. May God grant us that grace

Pope Francis

A fresh perspective on the Sunday readings

Solemnity of Mary, Holy Mother of God

“The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger; once they saw, they understood what had been told them concerning this child. All who heard of it were astonished at the report... Mary treasured all these things and reflected on them in her heart.”

Does it surprise me that the first to come and encounter Christ were lowly shepherds? They were certainly not the persons I would expect to greet a newborn baby. Obviously, they accepted the good news and then reported it to others. We who know the Bethlehem story so well, might not have even bothered to go to the cave where Christ was born. We might, like the shepherds, have just returned to the night watch guarding themselves and their flocks. Obviously their story moved others as well.

At the same time Mary both treasured and reflected, sometimes the scriptures say ‘pondered’ or weighed what she knew, saw and heard. How she felt may best be known by the mother of a newborn. It might be fitting to sit quietly like Mary and reflect upon the events. Christmas comes and goes so fast that we might overlook the great outpouring of the Father in giving us a needed Savior, and the role model of Mary treasuring and reflecting. May we treasure the coming of the Lord.

Preparing for next Sunday

The Epiphany of the Lord

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1-6

Jerusalem is extolled as a place of glory and splendor because the Lord has come to His own city.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Paul tells the Ephesians that his special mission is to make the Gentiles co-heirs with the Jews in Christ — “members of the same body and sharers of the promise.”

Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

Herod learns that Wise Men from the East are searching for the newly born Christ Child. He instructs them to find the Child and to report His whereabouts to him. The Wise Men follow a star to the place where Mary and Jesus are and offer the Child gold, frankincense, and myrrh. They do not return to Herod but follow another route to their own country.

“And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart.” LUKE 2:19

Mary is the perfect role model for living a stewardship lifestyle. She listened to God and said “yes” to His invitation to be the Holy Mother of His son. She also trusted in the God’s providence on a daily basis. As we start a new year, take time every day to listen to how God is calling you; trust that He has a better plan for you than you could ever imagine.

In Gratitude

Dear OLM parish family,

Thank you so much for your generous contribution to my Eagle Scout Project. I have now completed all the work in the Prayer Garden. Without your help, I would not have been able to finish the project.

Many people have already mentioned to me that they visited the garden to see my project, and they thought it looked very nice. This project was designed to withstand the test of time and help draw people closer to God. I invite all of you to visit the Prayer Garden to see the Stations of the Cross.

Sincerely,
Timothy Stein

The Knights of Columbus would like to thank Brenda Hann and Emma DeBorja of the Office of Faith Formation, the Catechists and Our Lady of the Mount Faith Formation students for participating in the Knights of Columbus "Letters to the Seminarians" Program. The students wrote a combined total of 120 letters and cards to seminarians Tholitho and Brother Demetrius Thomas. Seminarians Tholitho and Brother Demetrius Thomas are studying for the priesthood at Immaculate Conception Seminary at Seton Hall University.

The letters and cards contained words of encouragement to Seminarian Tholitho and Brother Demetrius in their pursuit of the priesthood, and wished them Christmas greetings.

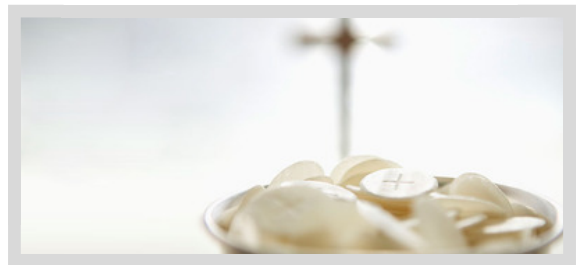

We Invite You

Confirmation

Are you an adult seeking to be Confirmed in the Catholic Faith? Confirmation preparation sessions are now available for Catholics 18 years of age and older who have already received the sacraments of Baptism and First Communion.

Please contact Laura Sepesi in the parish office at 908-647-1075 x103 or by email: lsepesi@olmwarren.org, if you are interested in receiving the sacrament of Confirmation at Our Lady of the Mount.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

While we are blessed to have several EMs who regularly serve our parish, the ministry has incurred recent losses - some temporary and some permanent - which has put a strain on those who currently serve.

The demands are particularly high on those in our Homebound ministry. Are you hearing the call to serve? Please contact Linda Montelione at 908-380-0163 if you are interested in either of these ministries.
